Article I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II - AUTHORITY

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this Association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives. as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

IN MEMORIAM

The 2010 Minutes of the South Fork Baptist Association are dedicated to the memory of Rev. Neal Reel. We were blessed by his many years of ministry in the South Fork Association.

Also to the memory of Mrs. Dixie Gibson, wife of Rev. Ken Gibson, pastor of Long Shoals Baptist Church. Dixie became a Christian through the influence of a godly neighbor who took her to church. After she became a Christian, she was instrumental in leading her whole family to Christ. Dixie came to Lexington Baptist College in Lexington, Kentucky Ken's second year. The first time he saw her, she was singing in the college girl's trio. When he learned her name and where she was from, he wondered, "How can a girl from Ohio have the name of Dixie?" Her mother later told him that she was just doomed for the South.

Dixie did not know that she was marrying a preacher. Ken was in college preparing for whatever work the Lord had for him to do. Later when he did receive his call to preach the gospel, she also felt called to be "a preacher's wife". Her calling was just as sure and certain as Ken's. For fifty-one years, she faithfully stood by his side as they ministered together. Wherever and whenever Ken felt the call to another church, she never questioned that call. When the call came to go to the northeastern part of our state to serve as a Director of Missions, she did not question that move. It meant moving over 300 miles away from family and that was very difficult. Even though she lost three members of her immediate family during that five year period, she faithfully served. She described that time as "a wilderness experience" but she did not doubt that they were in God's will. She had a great influence on the lives of the young pastors' wives who served in the association. Through all the years of ministry, she was a "role model and example" to other pastors' wives. She is worthy of the title "Pastor's Wife, par excellence".

Without a doubt, Dixie had the gift of encouragement. There was something about her that drew people in their time of need. No matter where she was (doctors' offices, restaurants or any public place), she would strike up a conversation. In a matter of minutes, a total stranger would be telling her all their hurts and burdens and she always had just the right word to say to them. Of course, a part of the conversation always included her children and grandchildren. Dixie had a passion for people who do not know the Lord and she has witnessed to so many people throughout her life. She also had a heart for missions and she was never happier than when she was involved in disaster relief or on a mission trip. Dixie's life was characterized by love. She had a deep love for her Savior and Lord and she loved people with an unconditional love. She was always willing to minister in any way she was called upon, but her first love was music. She was always available to play the piano and organ as she was needed. She was gifted with a beautiful alto voice.

- Missions Development Committee – Dr. Andy Royals
  Dr. Royals referred to the Missions Development Council report found in the 2009 Association Book of Reports regarding works of The Way Skate Ministry, Lincolnton; Hull's Grove North Campus, Lincolnton; Cross Creek Cowboy Church, Vale; Resurrecion Hispanic, Lincolnton; and Cornerstone Church, Maiden.
  He noted that The Way is built around recreational outreach. This work has been studied by our State Convention and the North American Mission Board as an innovative approach to reaching people outside the boundaries of traditional church.
  Hull's Grove, North Campus has reinvigorated a dying church into a vibrant and exciting experience to those who take part in its ministry. Operating as a satellite of the Hull's Grove Baptist Church, this work has become home to a growing number of worshipers.
  Cross Creek Cowboy Church has completed another successful year in reaching a segment of the population that is involved in the burgeoning horse industry and hobby in North Carolina. This group has also served as a model for similar works all across the country.
  Resurrecion (Hispanic spelling) has reached a new milestone with the calling of Rev. Jonas Perez as permanent pastor. Jonas is a native of Venezuela and a great addition to the work among Spanish speaking peoples in Central North Carolina.
  Cornerstone Church has become a very successful church in its community in the last several years. Jonathan Foster, the pastor, served at Mountain View Church in our Association as Youth Pastor and at the great Fairview Church in Statesville before assuming the pulpit at Cornerstone. Coming from a Southern Baptist background (His father is a long-time Southern Baptist pastor), he led the church through a period of assessment to determine its goals for the future. As a result, Cornerstone approached the South Fork Association with a desire to affiliate. A series of meetings between the Director of Missions and the staff and lay leadership of Cornerstone resulted in the Executive Committee voting to receive the church into watch-care in 2008. After monitoring the work of this church and observing their cooperative spirit, the Missions Development Council recommends that Cornerstone Church, Maiden be welcomed into full fellowship of the South Fork Baptist Association. Recommendation was accepted unanimously.

- Nominating Committee – Mrs. Pat Hallman referred to pages 15-16 of the Book of Reports and made motion, on behalf of the Nominating Committee, that the report be accepted as printed. Report was accepted.
- Committee on Committees – Rev. Greg Hager referred to pages 10-11 of the Book of Reports. He moved, on behalf of the Committee, that the report be accepted. Seconded. Report was accepted.
- Dr. Bob Wise recognized Ashley Allen of the Baptist State Convention who spoke regarding "Embrace".
- Memorials - Dr. Bob Wise referred to pages 29-30 of the Book of Reports. He shared comments on behalf of the deceased persons of the churches in the Association and led in prayer in their memory. Made motion that the report be accepted. Motion was accepted. He recommended that the 2009 Minutes of the Association be dedicated to Rev. James Cool and Rev. Don Ferrell. Recommendation was accepted.
- Resolutions Committee –Rev. Jeff Hull reviewed page 20 of the Book of Reports. Moved, on behalf of the Resolutions Committee, that the report be accepted as printed. Report was accepted.
- Fellowship Time.

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

We, the Baptist churches of Jesus Christ, composing the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, convinced of the necessity of an association of churches in order to promote fellowship, missions education, Christian service, the preaching of the gospel and to cooperate with the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the Southern Baptist Convention in their work, do hereby agree and subscribe to the following articles.

Article I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II - AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

Article III - ARTICLES OF FAITH

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. Elected "Messengers" shall represent the member churches at all meetings and their votes shall be binding as the votes of the represented church. Such "Messengers" and other persons shall be allowed, and/or elected to attend the Associational meetings in accordance with the bylaws.

Article V - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. Eligible Voters. This Association shall be composed of affiliated churches. Those persons authorized to act while the Association is meeting in session shall consist of the following:

A. All pastors of churches in the Association and the director of missions shall be recognized as messengers.

B. Three for the first one hundred members or fraction thereof, and one for each additional one hundred members or fraction thereof, provided that no church shall have more than ten messengers in addition to the pastor.

Section 2. Process for Receiving Church into Affiliation

The Association may receive other churches into its fellowship upon receipt of letters of dismission from other like associations. It may also receive newly constituted churches whose Articles of Faith harmonize with the generally accepted Articles of Faith among Baptists. Any newly organized church applying for membership in the Association shall be received under the watchcare of the Association for a period of time to prove, through practice and attitude, its place as a cooperating Baptist Church.

A church, upon organization, may apply for membership through the Executive Committee of the Association, upon recommendation of the Missions Development Council. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

A church under watchcare shall submit to the Association noting the church membership and attendance, financial reports of receipts, disbursements and indebtedness, and ownership of real estate.

Section 3. Discipline and Removal from Membership

Any church failing to report the annual letter to the Association, or failing to be represented at the annual meeting or failing to contribute to associational and denominational missions, for two consecutive years, shall be notified by the Executive Committee that if their failure is not remedied by the next annual meeting, recommendation shall be made to the Association acting in annual session to remove said church from the fellowship of the Association.

By a two-thirds majority vote at an annual meeting or other properly called special meeting of the Association, any church may be removed from membership in the Association. Any motion to remove such status must, however, be made by the Executive Committee which prior to any vote shall advise the church subject to such action of the proposed motion and provide an opportunity for the church to address the Committee and the Association concerning the issue.

Rev. Ralph K. Harris

April 19, 1922 - October 31, 2004

Ralph K. Harris was born April 19, 1922, in Catawba County, N.C. His parents were Charlie and Carrie Beal Harris of the Little Mountain area and they were life-long members of Center View Baptist Church. Ralph passed from this life on October 31, 2004, at the age of 82.

Ralph answered the call to the ministry in 1945 and was licensed to preach by Center View. In 1953, he was ordained by North Newton Baptist Church.

He received degrees from Wingate Jr. College, Wake Forest University, and graduated from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1962.

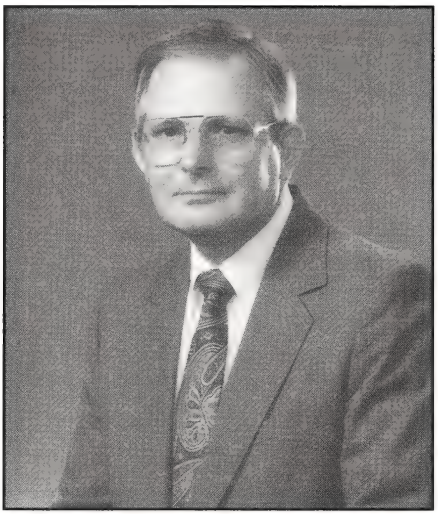
Ralph served Southern Baptist churches in North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia. He and a friend were instrumental in establishing a mission at Claremont, N.C. that later became a church. He served these churches: Advance, N.C.; Sharon, N.C.; Radford and Flint Hill (Bedford, Virginia); Green Valley, Virginia; Bluewell, W. Virginia; Altizer, W. Virginia; and Harmon Memorial, Virginia.

After retiring in 1989, he served 3 churches in Lincolnton, N.C. as interim and was a member of Salem Baptist Church.

Ralph was very active in his denomination, serving as moderator of all the associations he was a part of, was on the General Board of Virginia Baptists and the General Association of West Virginia Baptists, and established Seminary Extension classes for pastors in New Lebanon Association in Virginia.

Ralph married Daphine Conner, daughter of Ernest and Pearl Conner of Reepsville community on December 2, 1951, and they were married over 52 1/2 years at his death.

Ralph and Daphine have three children and three grandchildren. Their children are Ralph Douglas (wife Gloria and daughter Juliet), Roanoke, Virginia; Michael Lee (wife Jackie and daughter Emily), Elizabethon, Tennessee; and Kimberly Hall (Tim and son Conner), Kingsport, Tennessee.



Rev. James Stuart Johnson

September 5, 1932 - December 22, 2004

"Stuart Johnson was a prince of a man and a prince of preachers. Tall, handsome, and impeccably dressed, he always looked like someone on mission for the Lord." These are the words of a close friend who related them to me on the occasion of Stuart's homegoing service. I could only agree. As a pastor and Director of Missions, I treasure the memory of this fine man.

During a long and varied ministry, Stuart served eight churches in North Carolina. They were Highland in Shelby, Piney Grove in Lenoir, Whitnel First in Lenoir, FBC Carolina Beach, Emmanuel in Charlotte, Berea in Connelly Springs, Faith in Iron Station, and Long Shoals in Lincolnton.

Stuart's companion in life and ministry was Norma Jean Laws. They were married on October 16, 1952, and had celebrated 52 years of marriage before his untimely passing. They were the parents of James Mitchell Johnson (wife Angela) and Jeffrey Mark Johnson (wife Wendy) and grandchildren Brook Davis and Clint and Brent Johnson.

Stuart Johnson's ministry impacted thousands of people and the full extent of his work will only be known when we get to the other side.

Dr. Walker Laverne Pitts

July 24, 1916 - May 15, 2005

"W.L.," as he was known to his friends, was a man of God who never forgot how to be a man of the poeple. Plain spoken and down to earth, he will be remembered as a fine companion, accomplished colleague, and faithful friend.

Dr. Pitts was born in Franklin, Georgia, on July 24, 1916, to Rev. James Madison Pitts and Irene Levens Pitts, the youngest of eight children. He was educated in Lagrange, Georgia schools. He furthered his education at Norman Jr. College, Burton College, and earned his Doctorate at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary. He was later awarded the Doctor of Theology Degree by Clarksville Seminary. During a ministry that spanned 57 years, he pastored churches and preached all over the Southeast. He was the recipient of many honors, among which were special recognition from the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and being named a Lt. Colonel, Aide De Camp to Georgia Governor Lester Maddox.

W.L. first noticed the young lady who would become his wife from the projection room of the movie theater where he was working. A short time later, he talked some mutual friends into arranging a blind date. From that somewhat rocky beginning came a relationship that lasted sixty-six years. Edna Cantrell Pitts was his companion in ministry until his death. They were the parents of Walker Laverne Pitts, Jr. and the late Linda Pitts Barkley. W.L. was the doting grandfather to Waylon Pitts, Malinda Ogren, and Tasha Aguirre.

Dr. Pitts remained active in interim pastorates and evangelism until infirmity forced an end to those pursuits. He never, however, lost his passion for the Word of God. He entered the Heavenly Sanctuary on Sunday morning, May 15th, 2005, at 10:45 A.M., or as his dear Edna says, "just in time for the morning worship." AMEN!

Johnny Samuel Davis

February 22, 1931 - August 23, 2004

Rev. Johnny Samuel Davis, son of Jessie Edward Davis and Elsie Elizabeth Brittain, was born in Burke County on February 22, 1931. He was the second eldest of eleven children. The family moved to a farm in Lincoln County in the late 1930's. His family labored endlessly to clear land for farming, maintain enough crops and livestock to sustain their family and produce a small income. Even in the midst of economic depression, their perseverance, hard work and strong family values emerged as a driving force that would shape Johnny's life of service to his Lord, his country and his family. His mother's strong Christian faith also greatly influenced his ministry. He recalled that she read her Bible daily, made sure the family attended church regularly, shared her faith at every opportunity and taught her children to never be ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

His eldest brother Clinton worked in a saw mill then joined the marines and left to serve with WWII's finest. At the young age of twelve, Johnny had to assume a primary role of maintaining the farm. The labor was intense from early spring to late fall plowing with mules, planting and harvesting even by the light of the moon. Even with very little spare time, his mother insisted that her children attend school regularly and get as much education as they could. Johnny attended Lincoln High School and even passed two grades in one year. However, at the age of 17 he felt compelled to join the Army and serve his country. In 1948, Johnny told a recruiter he was 18 and before his family even realized he was gone, he was on a train headed for boot camp. The following three years he served his country faithfully in the Korean War, even though a clerical error left him on the front lines of combat for 16 consecutive months. Johnny said he knew that prayer changes things or he would not have come home alive. His mother told him that as she had years before during WWII, she and many others would leave the fields when they heard the church bells ringing, walk to the church and pray for the safe return of their sons.

Upon Johnny's return to U.S., he met and married his sweetheart of two weeks, Geraldine Spencer. He left the army and committed to raise a family with his new bride. However, his combat days left him with a serious injury which forced him to spend a year in the Veterans Hospital recovering. During his extended medical rehabilitation, he attended classes and got his G.E.D. certificate in 1953. Later that same year he was employed by Douglas Aircraft in Charlotte. With a constant desire to improve his education, he attended night classes in Math and English at Charlotte Community College. His advances in employment took him and his wife to Marietta, Georgia, where he attended night classes at Georgia Tech and Cobb County Vocational School. He received certifications in radio/TV repair and electrical blueprint reading. These certifications gave him an opportunity to work for Lockheed Aircraft and he would move his young family back to Lincoln County.

Although Johnny had a Christian upbringing and attended Amity Baptist Church as a child, it was not until January 31, 1957, that he fully surrendered his heart and life to the Lord and shortly after his baptism he answered the call into the ministry. He was licensed to preach in 1959 and served as a lay pastor in several local churches, while attending classes in Theology at Wingate University and Charlotte Bible Institute in 1959-1960. In 1961, he started a brush arbor ministry through First Baptist Church of Locust, N.C., and attended their 18-month Cross and Ministry School. In 1962 he was called as pastor of Temple Baptist Church in Lincolnton, where he was ordained through the Southern Baptist Association on July 8, 1962.

For the next twenty years he served bi-vocationally, and his career took him and his family to Georgia, Florida, California, and Arkansas and back to Lincoln County. Johnny always found a place of worship while he traveled and the Lord gave him countless opportunities to preach or teach in unfamiliar places and often on the spur of the moment. He often remarked that his greatest desire in the ministry had been to become an evangelist.

Johnny's tenacity, strong work ethic and the constant love and support of his devoted wife allowed him to continue his work in the ministry, progress in his career, maintain a small farm, raise a family and serve as a leader in the community. Once again in 1967, he was called to serve his country and he spent two years in Saigon during the Vietnam War and the Tet Offensive in a dangerous civil defense position. Even during his dangerous and difficult time, he served the Lord by organizing a school for young missionaries and their families in Saigon.

In 1969 he returned home and served as pastor at many churches including Oak Grove Baptist in Cherryville, Crouse Baptist, North Poplar Street, which later became Buffalo Shoals Baptist, Maple Hill Baptist, and Hildrebrand View Baptist. He served as an associate pastor at East Lincoln Missionary Baptist and twice as interim pastor at Macedonia Baptist Church. During this time he also served in many civic organizaitons. He was the Western Vice President of the N.C. Wildlife Federation and President of the Lincoln C ounty Sportsman Association. In 1980 he was a candidate for the NC House of Representatives and was defeated only by a small margin. He was a member of the Lincoln County Chapter of Disabled American Veterans and served as Chaplain and Commander. He also served as State DAV Chaplain, however, during his tenure he was asked not to proclaim the name of Jesus during his commentary or prayers. True to his convictions, his reply to the convention audience was a most profound presentation of the gospel of Jesus Christ, along with his resignation as State Chaplain. He continued to serve with the local DAV chapter and was widely recognized for his service as Commander of the rifle squad which provided military-graveside services for hundreds of veterans in this area. During 18 of these years of ministry and civic service, he was also employed by Duke Power Company until he took early retirement in 1985.

Following his retirement, Johnny kept his ministry active by furthering his theological education. In 1987 he enrolled as a student in the Eastern Association of Church Counselors, where he obtained certification as a Christian Counselor and served as an interim until 1989. He continued to minister in other ways, preaching revivals, interim pastorates, and teaching Bible classes including an in-depth 18-week Bible study on the book of Revelation. He attended and taught at Emmanuel Bible College from 1990-1996 where he earned Doctor of Divinity and Master of Theology degrees.

In 1998 Johnny's health declined and he was unable to stay active in the ministry. Even in his last years, he wanted to do the Lord's work and he wrote many sermons and study guides. During the last year of his life, while battling two devastating forms of cancer, he was in tremendous pain and unable to sleep at night. He used this time to write a manuscript which gives an overview of every book of the Bible. One of his last requests was for it to be published and given to anyone who was interested in learning more about God's word. Even as his hospice nurses labored to make his passing more comfortable, he asked them if they wanted to know about Jesus. They remarked that they had never met someone so happy and eager to share their testimony.

Johnny went home to be with the Lord during several unusual rolls of thunder in the late evening of August 23, 2004. As penned by his pastor, Dr. J. Dixon Free, surely Rev. Davis heard the words, "Welcome home, good and faithful servant.!" He left behind a legacy of Christian servanthood, a beloved wife of firty-three years, four sons, one daughter, thirteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The youngest of which at only fifteen months old adored her Paw-paw and was a constant companion for many of his last hours. She innocently sums up what we all remember about Johnny. When asked today where he paw-paw is, she brightly smiles as her little finger immediately rises upward and she emphatically replies...with JESUS!

Fred Joe Hawkins, Jr.

June 27, 1943 - October 2, 2004

Fred Hawkins was a minister who found his place of service not in a local church, but in the nursing facilities and retirement homes of the Lincolnton area. For over 30 years on a weekly basis, Bro. Fred gave devotions, prayed, and counseled and sympathized with hundreds of patients. At a time when many think themselves forgotten and shunted aside, Fred Hawkins made them feel special and shared the love of God with them. During these years he and his wife raised two sons and he maintained a career with Carolina Freight Carriers, Corp. An astute individual who attended college in Mississippi, Fred loved to discuss the scriptures with anyone, but especially his many preacher friends.

Fred served as a member of the Gideons International for many years. He helped to distribute thousands of Bibles and fulfilled speaking engagements in churches all across central North Carolina. He was ordained by Calvary Baptist Church in Lincolnton, which was his home church. He served as a lay preacher and interim at various churches, the last being Bethel Baptist in Lincolnton in the year prior to his untimely death.

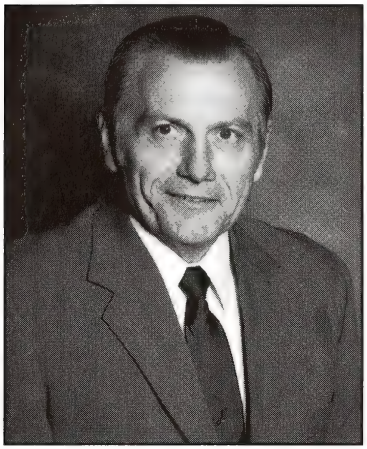
They had two children, Melanie Elrod and Phil Rabb. They also have three grandsons, Kurt Reid, Michael Rabb, and Eric Rabb.



William Darrell Saunders

June 25, 1931 - June 30, 2004

Darrell Saunders was born in Boger City, NC, to Glen and Sarah Little Saunders. His life was typical of a boy growing up in a southern textile town where activities centered around the school and the church. He attended Asbury Elementary and, with his family faithfully attended Boger City Baptist Church. It was at this place that he claimed Jesus as his Savior in 1942. After graduation from Lincolnton High School in 1949 he entered Kings Business College to study accounting. After a short stint of secular employment with Duplan Mills he joined the Air Force in the summer of 1951 and entered basic training at Lackland AFB in San Antonio, TX. It was there that God led him to his life's mate, Gertha Bridges of Grand Prairie, whom he married on October 3, 1953. 1953 proved to be a pivotal year in Darrell's life in more ways than one. It was the year that noted evangelist, Billy Graham conducted a Crusade in the brand new Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Responding to the call of God, young Darrell went forward and joined the throngs around the platform to commit himself to the gospel ministry. That decision would change the course of his life for the next 51 years.

After completing his Air Force service at Dobbins AFB near Atlanta, Darrell and Gertha returned to Texas where he enrolled at East Texas University in Marshall for the fall semester of 1955. While in the East Texas area he pastored two churches before moving back to North Carolina in 1960. During his career he was pastor at Hulls Grove, Southside, and Lawings Chapel in Lincoln County; New Prospect in Shelby; North Newton in Newton; and United and Oak Ridge in Burke County. He retired from Oak Ridge in August of 1998. After his retirement he remained active by serving as Interim Pastor in four churches, El Bethel and First Baptist Rutherford College in Burke County; Mt. Ruhama in Catawba County; and Southside in Lincolnton. During his career he served as a faithful pastor for 48 years. He preached his last sermon on the Sunday prior to his hospitalization on Tuesday. Due to the pain of his final illness he delivered this sermon sitting down.

Darrell was the father of three daughters, six grandchildren and one great-granddaughter. He was a vital part of a vibrant and extended family. He enjoyed traveling and especially enjoyed going to St. Louis to see the Cardinals and the Colts. He was an avid Carolina (there is only one and it's in Chapel Hill) basketball and football fan. Darrell was an athlete who pitched his last game of softball when he was 60 years old.

Darrell Saunders was a gentle, humble man who loved his family and his Lord. He entered and continued in his vocation with joy and made life better for countless individuals who came into his ministry.

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph. The Missions Development Council, based upon new work guidelines, may recommend at the next annual meeting that the church be received by majority vote into full fellowship of the Association. During this period of watchcare such churches shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of the Association except that their members and/or messengers shall not hold office or vote.

Alvin Leslie Hoyle
May 21, 1924 - January 7, 2003

Jude 20-25

When word came to me that Alvin Hoyle had passed to his reward, I mourned the passing of a good friend. Immediately the scripture from 2 Samuel 3:8 came to me. "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day..." Some might ask, "What prestigious pulpit did he fill?" Or, "What high office did he hold?" I would reply that all pulpits are important and there is no higher calling than that of Pastor. The truth is, I believe that when we get to heaven we will find that those who labored in obscurity, pastoring bi-vocational churches, will have the chief seats; while those who had the high profile ministries and the praise of their fellows, will have to take what is left. I often thought it necessary that Alvin have such a large exterior to house his heart. He was a preacher, who had a heart for preachers. In his later years he served as mentor, encourager, and prayer partner for many of his colleagues, including me (Bob Wise).

Alvin Hoyle was born in Gaston County, North Carolina, to John Sidney and Isabella Morrison Hoyle. He was the faithful husband of Margie Gantt Hoyle for almost sixty-one years. He is survived by Margie and their children, Joan Hoyle Cook and J.C.: Terry Lee Hoyle and Debbie; granddaughter, Gail Cook Brackett and Mike; Kathryn Cook Booth and Mark; and grandsons, Wesley Hoyle and Kreston Cook.

Alvin surrendered his life to the service of Christ on September 23, 1951. He was ordained at the request of the Howards Creek Baptist Church, by Roseland Baptist, his home church, on January 16, 1955. He prepared himself for his lifework by graduating from the Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in Hendersonville. He punctuated his preaching schedule with interim pastorates in Reepsville in 1959 and again in 1964. In June of 1965 he was called as pastor of Mathis Chapel Baptist Church in Catawba, remaining there until November of 1969. He then accepted the pulpit at Bethel Baptist in Lincolnton and served there for 16 years, until the spring of 1985. His long awaited retirement only lasted 5 months until he became interim at Anthony's Grove in the Gaston Association serving until May of 1986. Called out of retirement by his home church, he minstered at Roseland from 1987 until May of 2000. During all these years, Alvin had always been bi-vocational. He saw himself as a latter-day tent maker, continuing the work of evangelism, as patterned by the Apostle Paul.

Floyd Thomas Kirksey
April 6, 1928 - June 10, 2003

Matthew 25:21

So often a life is changed by the unexpected. So it was in December of 1953 when a hunting accident brought to a premature end, the promising baseball career of a young Floyd Kirksey. Called up to the Major Leagues, the pre-Christmas shooting ended the dreams of Spring training and set the stage for the most profound change of Floyd's life. God closed one door and opened another that would cause Floyd to take up the calling of the ministry. A call that would define his life for the next fifty years.

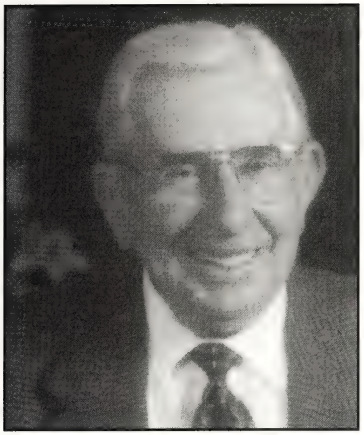
Floyd Kirksey was born in Alachua County, near Gainsville, Florida. His family moved to North Carolina while he was a young boy. He was saved at the age of 14 during the annual Balls Creek Camp Meeting in Catawba County. He married Dorothy Agnes Lynch on April 6, 1945. Their family was completed by the birth of their daughter, Carol Ann. Carol is married to Hubert D. Lambert, Sr. Their children are David Robert and Michael James Lambert.

Floyd attended Newton-Conover High School and Fruitland Baptist Bible Institute in Hendersonville, NC, graduating in 1962. He was ordained on June 28, 1956, by the Mathis Chapel Baptist Church. He became Pastor of the Massapoag Baptist Church in 1958, serving until 1960 when he began home missionary work with the Forest Ridge Baptist Church in Hollywood, Florida. After this two year detour, he returned to Massapoag which would be his work for thirty-seven years, ending with his retirement in August of 1998.

During his years at Massapoag, he oversaw the purchase of the property, building of the present facility and the pastorium. During his tenure the property, now the location of the South Fork Baptist Ministry Center, was conveyed to the Association.

Rev. Kirksey lived out his Christianity through his active support of community activities. He managed one of the first inter-racial, semi-pro, baseball teams in the area; worked extensively with the youth; served as Adjunct Chaplain at Gaston Memorial Hospital; and was an active supporter of the South Fork Association, Baptist State Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention; being recognized by his inclusion in Who's Who in America-Religion. He remained a sportsman to the end, bowling in two Senior Leagues the week prior to his final hospitalization.

Many people can vouch for the effectiveness of Floyd's ministry and testify of how their lives were changed by the work of this simple man of God. What a great testimony.



Billy R. Miller
January 12, 1926 - April 1, 2003

Proverbs 18:24

Billy Miller was one of those rare individuals who was always smiling and never seemed to meet a stranger. Over the years, God used his personality to impact the lives of hundreds of people. As a pastor and as an industrial chaplain, his humor and calm spirit helped to guide and encourage those who came into his ministry.

Billy was born to William Henry and Nancy Fincher Miller. Coming into the world as the second quarter of the Twentieth Century began, he would live through some of its most momentous events. From the great depression to the prosperity of the post-war years; from Lindbergh's trans-Atlantic flight to Neil Armstrong's walk on the moon. He saw the end of WWII, serving in the U.S. Army from 1945 to 1948. He saw the beginning of the cold war while called back into the Army during the Korean conflict in 1950.

God blessed him with his life mate when he met and married Carolyn Elizabeth Hovis. Beth and Billy became parents to William H. "Soap" Miller and Laura Michelle Miller. Another son, Robert Bradford "Brad", died in 1974. "Soap" is married to Judy and Michelle is married to Rick Skibo. Grandchildren are Brent Miller, Cody Smith, Carley Smith and Amy Skibo.

Billy was ordained by the Alexis Baptist Church in 1959. He was a graduate of Gardner-Webb College, Limestone College and the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. His pastorates include New Life Baptist in Stanley; Mt. Zion Baptist in Alexis, and McAdenville Baptist Church in McAdenville. He was honored for his tenure at Mt. Zion by being named Pastor Emeritus. He served as Chaplain of Stowe-Pharr Mills in McAdenville from 1979 until his death.

A man of wide interests, his Christian witness led him to be much involved in community affairs. He was named Man of the Year, McAdenville in 1976; served as Mayor of McAdenville from 1991-1995; served on the Board of Directors for Gaston County Mental Health; was a member of the LookUp Gaston Committee; was a Director of the Family Counseling Board; and served as Chaplain and was a Life Member of the Gaston County Chapter of Industrial Management Council.

An enduring legacy of his life and one that keeps alive the place and people who captivated him for so many years is his book, Spun From the Wilderness, a history of McAdenville. This book has a wide influence because of its close-up and personal look at small southern mill towns. These towns and the way of life they spawned are quickly fading away. So also, it could be said, of men like Billy Miller.

In the words of his son, "He worshipped his God, loved his family, and served his fellow man."

John Jacob Thornburg

April 29, 1927 - January 14, 2003

Genesis 32:28

Jake Thornburg was born in Cleveland County, NC, to Miller Lee and Lida Mae Hamrick Thornburg. He was the loving husband of Nelline Sipes Thornburg and the father of David and Francine. He had three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

His early life held little clue to the things he would do and the adventures he would experience as an adult. Barely out of his boyhood he enlisted in the Marine Corps which exposed him to a much wider world than the one he grew up in. After this experience, he entered into his lifes' work, fulfilling the calling of Christ.

He accepted the call to ministry and was ordained by the Second Baptist Church in Kings Mountain on December 16, 1951. While attending Gardner-Webb College, and later, Limestone College, he pastored his home church, Patterson Grove in Kings Mountain. After graduation, he pastored Albertson Road Baptist in High Point. His next call led him to Edgewood in Winston-Salem. During his tenure of 18 1/2 years this church expanded dramatically. Jake oversaw the construction of the unique worship center and the buildings of Edgewood Christian School, of which he was founder and President. This church has lived through the transitioning of it's neighborhood to remain a dominat light-house for Christ. "J.J.", as he was known to many, finished his active career at Pleasant View Baptist in Morganton. While there he began a prison ministry to the youthful offenders at the Western Carolina Correctional Facility. For his many hours of involvement he was named "Volunteer of the Year" at the facility.

During his years of ministry he had the opportunity to preach on many mission trips, including crusades in Trinidad-Tobago. He acted as host for several tours of the Holy Land, introducing many believers to the lands where Jesus walked.

Following his retirement, he served as interim at many churches, notably Boger City and Terrell. Jake was a man of wide interests. He was an accomplished pilot who loved the freedom of the skies. Upon his retirement from Pleasant Hill he rebuilt a small week-end retreat on Lake Norman into a comfortable home. While visiting with him on one occasion he shared that he had a fishing boat with a strange name, "Visitation". He said he gave it that name so that if anyone called on his day off he could always say, "I was out on "Visitation". That was a look at the wonderful sense of humor he had. Jake loved to laugh and make others laugh. Truly a "merry heart doeth good like medicine" was true when you were in Jake's company.

J.J. Thornburg was a fine preacher, loving pastor, and polished servant of the Lord Jesus. We are all lessened by his passing.

Article I - NAME

The name of the body shall be the South Fork Baptist Association of North Carolina, hereinafter referred to as the Association.

Article II - AUTHORITY

The Association claims to be independent and sovereign in its own sphere, but shall never attempt to exercise any authority over the internal affairs of the churches.

The Articles of Faith of the Association, which shall be the basis of fellowship and cooperation, are those adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis, Tennessee, May 14, 1925 and amended in Kansas City, Missouri, May 9, 1963.

Article IV - GOVERNMENT

The government of this association shall be Baptistic in nature, and the final authority for the operation and management of the affairs of this corporation, spiritual and temporal, shall be ultimately vested in the member churches of the corporation, which authority shall be exercised in the manner set forth in the bylaws. Members alone, acting in the manner and through the messengers and representatives, as set forth in the bylaws, shall have the authority to adopt and amend bylaws, approve budgets, receive members and govern and conduct the affairs of this corporation, subject to the following paragraph.    a. Dr. Robert Wensil presented report of the Missions Development Council. He presented the following recommendations, in the form of a motion, on behalf of the Council:

      (1) The MDC, in conjunction with the Executive Committee, recommends the reception into watchcare of the Hispanic Mission of Calvary Baptist Church, for the purpose of helping to develop this group into a cooperating church.

      (2) The MDC, in conjunction with the Executive Committee, recommends the reception into watchcare of the New Covenant Community Baptist Church, under the co-sponsorship of Antioch Baptist Church and New Life Baptist Church, for the purpose of helping to develop this group into a cooperating church.

      (3) The MDC, in conjunction with the Executive Committee, recommends the sponsorship, by the Association, of an Hispanic Learning Center, La Conexion Latina, (The Latin Connection) for the purpose of missions and evangelical outreach to Spanish speaking immigrants.

      (4) The MDC, in conjunction with the Executive Committee, recommends the reception into full fellowship of the New Hope Baptist Church, Denver. Evidence has been given during the period of watchcare of a cooperative spirit and a desire to be a part of the fellowship of the Association.

15. Director of Missions - Bob Wise

Dr. Bob Wise presented his Director of Missions Remarks. He thanked the 55 churches that make up the family of the South Fork Baptist Association (over 18,000 church members). He thanked the volunteers who do the work in the Association during the year. Referred to the Digest of Letters on page 13 in the Book of Reports. He recognized the top 10 churches in the Association in baptisms during the past year: Macedonia - 34 , Olivet - 31, New Life - 29, Calvary - 27, Mountain View - 26, First Baptist, Lincolnton - 25, Southside - 24, Lincoln Avenue - 23, Antioch - 19, and Denver - 15.

Bob talked about our Hispanic community. In 1990 census 1.6% of Lincoln County's population was Hispanic; in the 2000 census, 5.6% was Hispanic. It is imperative that we evangelize these people, because the majority of them come into our country as nominal Catholics. We have to identify ways to reach these people. We are starting a full time Hispanic Learning Center, the Centro Contacto Latino, in Colonial Village, Lincolnton with Betsy Chacon as executive director. First Baptist, Lincolnton has been the home for our ESL classes since the Association WMU Council started that work. We are going to be opening a satellite location at Denver Baptist Church. We hope to have other satellite locations in the future. We are going to have funding from the State of North Carolina for the first year and already have promise of support from some of our churches. We are asking churches to make this a part of their budget. Our dream is to reach out in Christ's Love to North Carolina's growing Hispanic population.

He announced that a group from the New Covenant Community Baptist Church would be at the meeting on Tuesday night with Keith Miller, pastor of this church bringing the message. This is going to be the first Southern Baptist African American congregation in this part of the state.

16. Benediction - Rev. Jerry Rodgers, Westport Baptist Church, Denver.
